For the moment however it is plant that social accurity in a broad senso is not and will not be an lastic of the presidential campaign Gov Landon's Intent is to of for an act as generous to its teneficiarits as the one propored and enacted under the Roosevelt admini tration. He charges that the new deals formula for social socurity suffers from a common legislative all ment of the last three years-slipshod and hasty preparations

As to the point of difference on distribut ing tevenue as it is collected a year at a time there is urgent need for assensaion There never has been a satisfactory explanation of the existing laws apparent sim to somester an enormous surplus which would be subject to the manage ment of politicians. Gov Landon does well to attack this undefended quarter of the social security act

The principle of social security is not an issue but the administration of any law colling for payments of pensions and benefits is clearly an a uto public problem If the Republican candidate for president can help the public to a livelier awareness of the magnitude and difficulties of the vast obligation entailed in a wide program of social security there will be for the first time popular participation in thought and selien on this vital subject
